

Visuals to support communication, reading and writing skills.

These examples demonstrate the use of a story board where students can place objects, words with symbols, photos and/or sentence strips.

This example demonstrates how a student has communicated which toy they like and dislike using a basic communication board.

Using sign language for key words is inclusive and fun.